Putt'n Time Rules: A Putt'n Around associate or the host/hostess assigned to the party will help golfing guests choose putters, balls and break into groups of five (5) maximum. Guests under the age of ten (10) are required to have an adult chaperone accompany the group on the course.

To ensure the safety and enjoyment for all our guests, there is no running allowed on our courses, through our gardens, or through our water features. All guests are asked to stay on the paths and out of the gardens and water features. If a ball is lost among the plants or in the water and is not safely retrievable, we ask that the player request the assistance of a Putt'n Around associate or the party host/hostess. No party players should interfere with other players on the course. No party player should damage any statuary or botanicals. No party player should knowingly hurt another player.

_____ Any player violating these rules may be asked to leave the course and no refunds apply.

_____ Any damage incurred by party guests will be the responsibility of the contracting client.

_____ Guests are permitted to be on the course only while playing a round of golf or chaperoning a playing group. Once a guest has finished playing the contracted number of holes, they are not allowed back on the course. If party guests return to the course or play more than the contracted number of holes, the contracting client will be charged for the additional 18 holes for all party guests.

_____ It is the responsibility of the contracting client to ensure that all party guests and chaperones adhere to the rules.

Catering: Putt'n Around has assorted snacks available and a full kitchen. All food and beverages must be purchased through Putt'n Around. We ask that there are no glass containers for safety reasons. There is limited refrigerator space to hold cakes. We do have information available for local bakeries if you are interested in custom cakes, as Putt'n Around is unable to offer you this service from its kitchen.

_____ All beverages, including beer and wine (in compliance with Florida State Law), must be purchased through Putt'n Around. It is not permitted to bring a cooler of drinks.

Payment:

_____ A credit card will be provided by contracting client before party begins. No coupons accepted towards any party or event. An itemized Party Invoice will be provided to client at the end of the party. The client retains the option to pay the invoice with cash in exchange for the credit card.

_____ Confirmation of the number of guests is required 48 hours in advance of party. There is no charge for chaperones not golfing. There is no credit for guests who are confirmed but do not attend party.

Rain Policy:

_____ The $100.00 plus tax minimum rental fee to hold your booking date is non-refundable.

_____ If a minimum notice of two (2) hours is given due to inclement weather, a future party date can be requested without an additional rental deposit. If less than two (2) hours or no notice is given, the original rental deposit is forfeited and any future party date requested will require an additional rental deposit.

Photographic Release: Signing this contract gives Putt'n Around permission to use, reproduce and distribute pictures or likenesses of all party participants on the Putt'n Around website, Facebook page, or any other media source as may be determined by Putt'n Around.

Waiver: All participants hereby voluntarily assume any and all risk, including injury to person or property which may be caused as a result of the use of the premises known as Putt'n Around Delray Beach, and will hold Putt'n Around Delray Beach harmless against any and all claims resulting from such injuries. It is understood that this waiver includes any claims based on negligence, action or inaction of the above parties.

All provisions and prices included in this contract are subject to change without notification.

I acknowledge that I have read and understand the above terms and conditions.
